Chapter 1 by Ricky Advani

The Nazis had won the war. Hitler took over all of Europe and North Africa. His ideologies spread like wildfire over international boundaries and his voice outspoke all of their voice for he was the führer. He now controlled over 45 million soldiers.

All others fell to his grace and accepted their defeat. Almost everyday he'd gain 60 hectares of land as his soldiers kept pushing. The Nazis had supreme control and thus constructed the most powerful nuclear explosive. Hitler called it ''Weltenzerstörer''. It amassed the power of 75 Megatons of TNT.

The next morning, WashingtonDC was reduced to ashes as the explosive boiled the city into vapor. Americans were reduced to water vapor and formed huge clouds of death and dismay.
